Deconstructing Jesus

Robert M. Price argues that reconstructions of the “historical Jesus” were created to authorize a liberal religious agenda. Price follows a range of “Jesus movements,” showing the origins of each one’s Jesus figure and how they may have merged into the patchwork savior of Christian dogma.

The Incredible Shrinking Son of Man How Reliable is the Gospel Tradition?

“This informative and gripping book shows us how the Gospel stories were put together in order to satisfy religious craving.” –Ulster Humanist

The Incredible Shrinking Son of Man charts new territory, illustrating the virtual lack of historical information in the New Testament’s Jesus stories.

$22.00 ($27.00 retail) 390 pages Hardcover Autographed

The Da Vinci Fraud Why the Truth is Stranger than Fiction

New Testament scholar Robert M. Price, a member of the Jesus Seminar, examines the creative uses of history in Brown’s novel, showing that, however intriguing Brown’s fictional speculations may be, the real facts behind the novel are even more fascinating.

$15.00 ($19.00 retail) 296 pages Paperback Autographed

The Reason-Driven Life What Am I Here on Earth For?

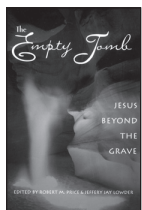

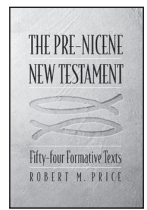

Following the concise forty-chapter structure of Pastor Rick Warren’s book, The Purpose-Driven Life, Robert Price’s point-counterpoint approach emphasizes the importance of reason in understanding life’s realities as opposed to Warren’s devotional perspective.

The Pre-Nicene New Testament Fifty-Four Formative Texts

Professor Price offers the earliest extant versions of fifty-four books, all of which were once considered sacred, including both the New Testament books and lesser known works. These have been compiled into a single convenient, readable, and reliable volume.

$40.00 ($50.00 retail) 1248 pages Hardcover Autographed

The Empty Tomb Jesus Beyond the Grave

Edited by Robert M. Price and Jeffery Jay Lowder, The Empty Tomb collects writings that scrutinize the efforts of leading Christian apologists and critiques their view of the resurrection as the best historical explanation, providing a sober, objective response to arguments offered in defense of Christianity’s central claim.
